Student Protection Policy

Pastoral, policy and legal responsibilities

In fulfilling its pastoral, policy and legal responsibilities, Brisbane Catholic Education and the schools it administers and supports:

Comply with all relevant Queensland child protection legislation.

Develop, maintain and support a student protection policy and related processes which reflect the pastoral and legal responsibility of school staff.

Provide specialist support personnel and resources at a system and school level.

Develop and maintain relationships and partnerships with relevant statutory, government and non-government agencies in the support and protection of students.

Adhere to relevant internal and external regulatory accountability requirements.

Meet the current professional expectations of schools in Australia.

All students have a right to expect that the school will always act to protect them from any kind of harm.
